

Dance like Jane Austen!

Regency-Era/Early 19th Century Dancing in New York City with dance historian Susan de Guardiola

Sundays, 2:00-4:00 pm
January 8, February 5, March 4
April 1, May 6, June 3

DANY Studios, Studio 10, 305 W. 38th between 8th & 9th

Easy dances and basic steps taught in an informal workshop setting. Learn the lively country dances, quadrilles, and reels of the 1790-1825 era -- the time of Jane Austen, Lord Byron, the War of 1812, and the Napoleonic Wars!

No costume needed! Comfortable clothing and flat, leather-soled shoes.
High heels of any kind are NOT SUITED to this style of dance!
$15 per person

For more information: <http://www.blank.org/susan/regency> or susan@LSE.org

SAVE THE DATES!!!

Saturday, May 12th: Sailing Masters Regency Ball, Essex, CT
Saturday-Sunday October 13th-14th: 10th Annual Regency Assembly, New Haven, CT